President's Message

Welcome back...it is so good to be able to say that! Hopefully all will continue to stay well with the world as we all heal from the last two years.

It will be wonderful to see everyone again as we start off our fall program and see what everyone has been working on.

The Program Committee has been hard at work and I am looking forward to the speakers and workshops that are planned.

With any luck, masks will remain optional. As flu season approaches we will follow any mandates put forward by Public Health.

Looking forward to a great year!

Georgean Morden

Next Guild Meeting

Buckhorn Community Centre, 1782 Lakehurst Rd.

Grantham Books will be there!

Our Guild needs a Vice President!

Please consider taking on this important role for our quilt guild.

To find out more about this position, see the job description as outlined in our constitution at buckhornquilters.com, or feel free to ask current president, Georgie Morden, or other members of the executive for details.

Thank you!

Placemats for Community Care

We need a volunteer from our membership to coordinate the collection of placemats for Community Care Christmas hampers.

Contact Georgie Morden if you are willing to take this on.

Guild members, please consider donating your time to make placemats (singles, pairs, or sets) for this very worthwhile cause.

A message from the Kitchen Committee

We will not have access to the BCC kitchen for our September meeting, so please bring your own beverages.

There will be a snack table, however (yay!), so contributions (including gluten-free and nut-free) are welcome.

Please contact either Irene or Yettie if you plan on bringing treats.

Comfort Quilts

If you know someone in need of a comfort quilt, please contact Loren.

BAQG September Yard Sale

Wow, what a terrific turnout and success!

The small but mighty team of Sue W, Loren, Ann B, and Sue T were thrilled with the sale, even the weather cooperated!

We asked for your no longer loved items and you responded with an amazing array of fabrics, patterns, books, and notions. One shopper asked if we had owned a store!

We asked for help sorting and pricing and being there on the day, you showed up and worked hard.

We asked for you to shop and you did that!

Thank you for making it possible for us to raise $1236.00 in profit for the guild coffers.

The yard sale is an example of the magic and fellowship that happens when we work as a BAQG team.

A special thank you to Sue W for the use of her house whilst sorting and pricing, and to Sue W and Ann B for the use of their driveways during the sale.

The leftovers: we have set aside patterns, books, and fabric bundles for future guild use, and we will have a good start on our boutique for the quilt show next year.

Well done BAQG!

Sue T

Request for Donations

Loren will be collecting new toiletry items
- shampoo, soap, toothpaste, sanitary supplies, etc. -
to help the New Canadians Centre.
All donations are appreciated!

Do you know about our guild's private
Facebook group, BAQG Insiders?

It's a great way for members to stay in touch, share ideas, and have some fun! Contact Joanne Misener or Diana Stevenson to join!

A Note from the Editor:

I'm excited to be your new newsletter editor!

A big thank you to our previous editor, Evelyn Bracegirdle, for doing such an exceptional job over the years, and for offering her guidance
as I started my new role.

Looking forward to seeing everyone
soon!
